1. Introduction

LORLENE PEREZ HERNANDEZ

THE DIRECTIVE-COMMISSION CONTINUUM
The Directing Committee, Community.

The Directing Committee, Community.

The Directing Committee, Community.

The Directing Committee, Community.

The Directing Committee, Community.

The Directing Committee, Community.

The Directing Committee, Community.
Unnecessarily, increase the opportunity of the address at age A as seen in

3. (1) The following example is a useful member of the class of

4. (2) We must now extend the "never" principle to cover the following example.

5. (3) The presence of the address serves to prevent the following example.

6. (4) The limitation on the number of times the address serves to prevent the following example.
CONVERSATIONAL POLITENESS (Extended version)

The directive-commissive construction

Consider the phonological structure of the example of politeness

2.2 THE ICON OF禮客

Lorena Perez Hernandez
In other cases, it is for the lecturer or author to determine if a speaker's role is to explain or to interpret.

Speaker's role (1982: 198) and the importance of each.

The speaker's role is to explain or to interpret, depending on the context. In this context, the speaker's role is to explain.

The speaker's role is to explain or to interpret, depending on the context. In this context, the speaker's role is to explain.

The speaker's role is to explain or to interpret, depending on the context. In this context, the speaker's role is to explain.

The speaker's role is to explain or to interpret, depending on the context. In this context, the speaker's role is to explain.
The Directive-Commission Continuum

LOMA PIERRE HENCLANDER

Commission of Professional

A licence to practice the office of professional in the United Kingdom is granted to all those who have completed the professional training and examination. The professional training is provided by the nationally recognised Professional Training Bodies. The examination is conducted by the Professional Training Board, and the results are announced by the Commission of Professional.

The Commission of Professional is responsible for ensuring that all those who wish to practice the office of professional meet the standards of proficiency set by the Commission.

The Commission of Professional has the power to deregister a professional if they are found to have breached the rules of professional conduct.

The Commission of Professional also has the power to impose conditions on professionals who have been found to have breached the rules of professional cconduct.

The Commission of Professional is an independent body, and its decisions are not subject to appeal.

The Commission of Professional is funded by the professional bodies.

The Commission of Professional is located at 123 Professional Street, London.

For further information, please contact the Commission of Professional at 0123-456-7890.
Consider the following advice, which underlines the directive and contributes:

- Ensure that the advice provided is clear and concise.
- The directive should be relevant and aligned with the context.
- Avoid unnecessary jargon or technical terms.
- Highlight the key points that need to be emphasized.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Directive Features</th>
<th>Commission Features</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Act of Justice</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

---

Commission Remanded
Conclusion

The Director and Commissioners accept the Commission's position and recommend the Commission's position to the Speaker of the House. The Director shall not interfere with the determination of the appropriate time for the consideration of the Commission's position by the Speaker of the House.

The Director, in his or her discretion, shall determine the appropriate time for the consideration of the Commission's position by the Speaker of the House. The Director shall not interfere with the determination of the appropriate time for the consideration of the Commission's position by the Speaker of the House.

The Director shall not interfere with the determination of the appropriate time for the consideration of the Commission's position by the Speaker of the House.

The Director shall not interfere with the determination of the appropriate time for the consideration of the Commission's position by the Speaker of the House.
The Director-Commander, Operation 1968.

Notes

directors can become redundant. In order to prevent this, it is necessary to ensure that the operation is properly structured and that the directors are adequately trained and prepared. It is also important to ensure that the operation is properly supported by the necessary resources and that the directors are adequately supported by their staff. The operation must be properly evaluated to determine its effectiveness and to ensure that it is meeting its objectives. The operation must also be properly coordinated with other operations to ensure that they are not duplicating efforts or conflicting with one another.

Figure 4.1. The Director-Commander's organization.

Lorna Pires Henderson
1. Introduction

Univestiones de Servanis

MARIA JESUS SANCHEZ

COMO LÉNGUA EXTRANJERA
EL APRENDIZAJE DE LAS LENGUAS INGLESES Y DEL PATHFINDER PARA MEDIR
EL EFECTO DEL FRAUD ASSOCIATION TEST